Claud M. Miller, of Pincher Creek, was arrested near High River last week and taken to Macleod, where he will stand trial, charged with the theft of a horse from Pincher Creek.

Lloyd George, the successor of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener as head of the war office, has stated that "British resourcefulness and British intelligence are going to snatch victory in a few months."

A Ford car bought part by part costs only $40 more than the list price of the complete car, as against $940 more for the parts of the average car priced around $1,000 and less $910—Cost, over and above the list price of the car itself for enough spare parts to build the average touring car priced around $1,000 and less.

$40—Cost, over and above the list price of the car itself for enough spare parts to build a Ford touring car complete.

$900—Difference in part by part cost of cars.

And remember, both by laboratory tests and actual service tests, the parts of a Ford car have proved themselves superior, part by part, to those of any other car.

Don't these figures drive home what is meant by the low upkeep of the Ford?

South Alberta To Raise $408,000 For The Fund

The South Alberta branch of the patriotic fund, at a general meeting of the executives representing the various towns, cities and constituencies in the district, held Tuesday in Calgary voted to make a third assessment totalling $408,000.

The receipts for the first assessment, from the inception of the fund to August 31, 1915, from all sources, were $113,059. From the second assessment, from September 1, 1915, to June 30, 1916, the receipts were $279,731. This made a total of $392,800.

A resolution was adopted, by a majority vote, with considerable opposition noted, that the names of persons who are financially able to contribute to the fund and refuse to do so shall be published in the local press.

It was unanimously agreed that the central campaign committee shall at once inaugurate a general campaign to obtain from the farmers of Southern Alberta promises of contributions of grain or livestock, and that a special organization to handle this campaign be created at headquarters. It is anticipated that all the way from $100,000 to $500,000 can be raised for the patriotic fund by this means.

The reports from the different districts were of the most optimistic nature, the representatives of the local committees pledging themselves to raise the money set against their territories and even exceed it. The only changes made in the recommendations of the central committee was that Lethbridge was reduced from $40,000 to $30,000, and Medicine Hat increased from $25,000 to $30,000. The assessment, by constituencies, is as follows:

Constituency	Amount
Aradine	$ 7,000
Box Valley	4,000
Calgary	100,000
Cardston	7,000
Chapleau	6,000

Sitting of Court of Revision

The Blairmore town council sat on Friday last as a court of revision, to hear appeals against the recent assessment.

Among the appellants were the McLaren Lumber Co., W. A. Beebe, Mrs. M. Anders, Frank A. Beebe, D. G. Dray, Mrs. D. N. Dray, O. Lévesque, Joe Little, Mrs. Charlotte Lewis, G. Menzies, P. Montalbetti, Joseph Montalbetti, Maffiola Massini, Jules Michel, A. McLeod, Mike Ollie, Quong Tai and H. H. Tate.

The appeal of Quong Tai was withdrawn by his solicitor, J. E. Gillis. Mr. Gillis also appeared for the McLaren Lumber Co., who claimed that their assessment was too high. It was shown that of about 208 acres practically 200 acres were under swamp, and rendered worthless for any purpose. The company were not asked to have their mill site and dry land assessed at a reasonable rate, suggesting $30 to $40

Town Council Holds Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Blairmore council was held last night, Mayor Sinclair and Councillors Dutil, Bartlett and Evans being present.

The minutes of last regular meeting, and of the Court of Revision, were approved, and communications from Noy & James, Regina; Dominion of Canada Trust Co., and Lethbridge Board of Trade were received.

The following accounts were passed, subject to approval of various committees: R. M. Cement Co. $59.80, Alberta Government Telephones $35.50, W. A. Beebe $20.00, A. McLeod $70.75, F. Wright $75.00, Sun-pet acre as within reason. On motion it was decided to change assessment of mill site (20 acres) to $100 per acre, and the balance, 248 acres at $12.50. With but one or two exceptions, the other appeals were dismissed.

NOTICE

Communication from Noy & James asked if the council could arrange to have $12,000 on bonds made payable at New York, and secretary was advised to inform them that, on account of fluctuations, the town could not undertake to make future payments payable in the U.S.A.

Communication from Lethbridge Board of Trade was addressed to the Blairmore Board of Trade. The council declared themselves in sympathy with the reinstating of the before-the-war passenger train service on this division. The service of the past several months has been entirely unsatisfactory to the Pass towns, while the former "flyer" schedule rendered excellent service, not only locally, but also to towns all along the line to Lethbridge.

The secretary-treasurer was instructed to write the West Canadian Collieries Co., referring them to the plans of level, crossing on Victoria Street.

Non-E. M. Jackson, minister of finance for Newfoundland, died in hospital at Montreal last week, aged 46 years.

Letters From The Front

The following letter with reference to Malcolm J. McKinnon, was received from Stanley McKinnon by his sister at North Sydney recently:

"Flinders, May 13th, 1916.
Dear Jim—You must not worry because of Malcolm McKinnon's death. I wish I could write and describe the conditions under which he met his death. But to do so would give away military information. But this much I can tell you: It was less than five years, the incident in which he met his death will be shipped out and talked of by the boys who get back, and Malcolm McKinnon they'll never forget in this battalion."

"And since he had to die in this war, it's fitting that it happened where it did, for there was no braver boy on this front than poor M. J., and if promotions were given for services rendered, he would have been a colonel. If there was a bad place to be wired he was here, and if the battalion was pulling off a stunt, M. J. was bound to be in the front place. It was a regular thing for him to be on the patrol and wiring parties night after night."

"Men is put in this world to save his kind and there is no place where he emphasizes this so much as on the battle-field. There he sees how little little a man in this world and is rewarded. Malcolm was in communication with me the Sunday before he died. I felt sorry for his parents and relatives, and I thought have reason to be proud of their lost boy."

"There is no more mourned in C. Company than he. But God's will be done; leave it all to Him and things will be for the best. You people back home play the hardest part in the war—worry up and be game. Stanley will be back. It's God's will."

Stanley.
Malcolm J. McKinnon was a son of Joseph D. McKinnon, formerly of Beaver Cove, but now of Ulster Bay, C.B.R., and a brother of A. J. McKinnon, of Frank, and Miss D. McKinnon, of Perth. He was but nineteen years of age when he met death in that famous battle of St. El on April 14th. He was at one time employed in the office of the coal company at Frank, where he was looked upon as a trustworthy and capable employee.

Referring to him, the North Sydney Herald of July 12th, says: "Young McKinnon was a boy of splendid talents and excellent character, and his untimely death was a great loss to the community. He would win a place for himself high on the list of Great Britain's sons who have distinguished themselves in the various honorable ranks of life; but the line of this mapped out was all changed by the outbreak of the most devastating of ancient or modern wars, and in response to the call of his King and country this young lad was soon at the front, and where the dead were lying thick as he fell bravely fighting at St. El on the 14th day of April, 1916. The whole course of his life was changed, and the name and glory of the world of action was wholly exchanged for that of the battlefield."

The following letter was received by J. P. Patton from his son, Silvio:

"Third London General Hospital, July 11, 1916.
Dear Dad—Just a few lines to let you know I have been wounded. It happened on the 26th of June, but I was unable to write until now. I was hit in five places. The hip and the knee are the worst. One went right through my arm, another entered my hip and came out above the knee, another hit me in the calf of my right leg and came out at the knee. I am pretty well shaken up. Make it here with me. She comes for two hours every day, and I don't know what I would do without her. Well, dad, don't worry over me. I am alright. I have put up a good fight at my rate, and had seventeen months in France. The war is the last time I heard from him. I must close now, dad, as my arm is tired. I feel lousy, with love. Your son, Silvio Patton."

The following is an synopsis of a letter received from Sapper Clifford Glynn Miller of the No. 2 Tunnelling Co., Canadian Engineers, to his mother, Mrs. R. Deering, of Bellevue:

"Dulmen, June 14th, 1916.

Dear Mother:
I suppose you will know by this time that I am a prisoner of war in Germany, so I hope you will be hitting things with a smile."

I hope you are all well and in the best of spirits, as I must say we are treated very kindly, so far. Nearly all of the Bellevue boys are here with me, so we are not lonesome. We haven't had anything to do as yet. You can let the people of Bellevue know that we are here and all in good health. We are only allowed two letters and four cards a month. I want you to send me some parcels of food in the line of canned goods, such as fruit and meat stiffs, salt and sugar, anything that won't spoil before I get it. You may spread the news around there, and if anyone should have more than they want they can send it here. There are seven or eight of us from Bellevue here. We would also appreciate some full Durham tobacco and cigarettes and papers, and a few socks. It has been raining here the past couple of days, but we don't have to go out in it much. We have got good quarters and sleeping accommodation. Don't send any papers as we are not allowed them."

"Charley's Aunt."

"A riot of clean fun" exactly describes this play, which appears at the Blairmore Opera House, Thursday, August 3rd, and which ran for four years at the Globe Theatre in London, and when Londoners continue to laugh and applaud a comedy for that length of time, it must be "some play." "Charley's Aunt" is a sure enough play. In construction it is absolutely novel, and its many scenes are so full of action, its climaxes so tense in unexpected surprise, that its audiences are treated to laugh after laugh in a perfect pace of comedy. If you want to laugh without interruption for two mortal hours see "Charley's Aunt."

TEN YEARS AGO

(From The Blairmore Times, 1906)

Owing to the crowded condition of the Blairmore school, the trustees have made arrangements to open a school in the Mission hall for the little ones.

April 26--Fred Hansen is now in charge of the P. Burns store in Blairmore.

A census of Frank lately taken shows that town to have a population of slightly under 700 people.

Blairmore is to have a brass band, and a full set of instruments has been ordered.

The motion to move the capital to Calgary was defeated in the Legislature on Wednesday by 14 to 6. McKenna, Walsh, Cushing, Stuart, Moore, Simpson, Robert and Hackett voted in favor of Calgary.

Four years ago it was decided to post a detachment of mounted police between Frank and Blairmore, the log building near the old sanitarium being the headquarters.

During the week four years ago Corporal W. C. Bryan, of the R.C.M.P., was kept busy receiving applications from Frank men who desired to enlist in the contingent being raised for service in South Africa. Among those who enlisted were: James Hovey, Oscar Peterson, John Gibson, Harry Gile, James Powers, J. Craig, A. McNeill, F. Reid, John Graham, Joseph Graham, T. Monroe, J. Dunlap, R. Gilmore, C. A. Johnson and J. Horton.

May 5--Monday the ratcatchers of Frank will hold a meeting to take final steps towards incorporating that place.

The many friends of James Turnbull, who has been riding over the wagon bridge in the Frank hospital, are pleased to see him about again.

Frank S. Kilpin, who has been laid up in the Meachod hospital for some time, is back again and on his old job as bar-tender at the Comptrol hospital.

Justice A. C. Beach, of Frank, imposed a fine of $1 and costs each on two young men for riding over the wagon bridge near Frank faster than a walk.

On Sunday evening a quiet wedding took place at the Frank hotel, when Alfred Mangel, the proprietor of that establishment, led to the altar Miss Margaret Ellen Welsh, of Frank. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Johnson.

There be the days in which a man loses his little garden patch, barrows his soul, cultivates curvature of spine, sows radical seed and reaps ruin and raises blisters."

May 12--E. Disney was this week awarded the contract for the erection of the new English church at Coleman.

May 19--A new hotel building is being erected at Bellevue by Mrs. Budd.

The grand opening dance given last Wednesday evening by D. C. Drain, of the Blairmore hotel, was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

Two young men of Lundbreck were brought up before the "bench" (Jed Bench) at Frank and fined one dollar a piece for fighting, and a little costs on the side.

The first white woman to live in The Pass was Mrs. Robert Connolly in May, 1892, to the sulphur springs, making her home at the Sanitarium hotel for six years.

May 26--On Monday evening the many friends of A. Mammel, of the Frank hotel, who returned from his wedding trip on Sunday, gave him a genuine old-fashioned welcome home. If Mr. and Mrs. Mammel's popularity can be gauged, and we believe it is, by the number who attended the banquet given in their honor, they have nothing but well-wishers in The Pass towns.

The dining room of the new Bellevue hotel has been opened up to the public and is doing a rushing business.

B. F. South, of Medicine Hat, has purchased the Stationary business of Frank Graining, at Coleman, and takes over as part of the Graham block.

Anglican Church
Service on Sunday next as usual at 11 a.m., conducted by the Rev. H. Clay, subject of sermon: "The Men of His Garment." There will be a celebration of Holy Communion.

Sunday school at 7.30 p.m.
A hearty welcome to all.

Central Union Church
Dr. R. H. GRAY, Pastor,
Sunday, July 30th:—

11 a.m., Public Service and Bible Class. Subject: "The Word of the Cross," Scripture lesson: 1st Cor. 1:3-1:5.

7.30 p.m., Public Service and Sermon. Subject: "The Test of Manhood." Strangers and other visitors are cordially invited to the services.

It pays to advertise the goods that it pays the public to buy.
